

NEWS

Photo Captions:

New York Power Authority Sponsors Long Island “Envirothon”

Two Teams to Go to Statewide Environmental Competition

May 21, 2009

The Championship Nassau County Long Island Regional Envirothon team from Chaminade High School and sponsors: (L-R) Sharon Frost, Suffolk County Soil & Water Conservation District & LI Regional Envirothon Coordinator; Brother Ben Knapp, Chaminade Advisor; Charles Mahoney, 12th grade; Philip Lettieri, 12th grade; Richard Kessel, President & CEO, New York Power Authority; Dawn Shields, Senior Manager/Corporate Events, Canon USA; Louis Stokum, 12th grade; Harry Liberman, 12th grade; Timothy Healy, 11th grade and Gwen Lerner, Nassau County Soil & Water Conservation District & LI Regional Envirothon Coordinator.

The Championship Suffolk County Long Island Regional Envirothon team from Sachem North and sponsors: (Kneeling in front, l-r) Jessica Thomas, 11th grade & Jessica McGlinchey, 10th grade. (Standing, l-r) Sharon Frost, Suffolk County Soil & Water Conservation District & LI Regional Envirothon Coordinator; Colleen Lohr, Sachem North Science teacher & team advisor; Kaitlyn Bosch, 12th grade; Richard Kessel, President & CEO, New York Power Authority; Dawn Shields, Senior Manager/Corporate Events, Corporate Communications, Canon USA; Margaret Luebs, 12th grade; Ruchi Shah, 9th grade; Jaime Bhalla, Sachem North science teacher & team advisor; Gwen Lerner, Nassau County Soil & Water Conservation District & LI Regional Envirothon Coordinator.

Photo Credit: NYPA

For more information, please contact: Ed Birdie 914-390-8180